Code of Conduct

The College embraces and expects a level of conduct by all employees that includes mutual respect for others, basic courtesy, reciprocity and behaviors that create a positive and professional environment in which to learn and to work. Employees are required to comply with federal, state, county, and municipal laws and regulations as well as the policies and procedures of the College. An employee may be required to sign acknowledgement of expectations in some areas to satisfy compliance with an accrediting body or external legal requirements.

Conduct Expectations

Open & Honest Communications

The College values the robust exchange of ideas and different perspectives. At various times, a College employee may be speaking in a particular capacity - academic setting, employment context, or as a private citizen. Specific standards apply to these different situations. The standards in this Handbook apply when an employee communicates in the course of scope of employment or regarding topics directly related to work. The principles listed in this Handbook seek to promote truth, candid expression, and workplace civility. Academic freedom and speech as a private citizen are governed by other policies. See BP 3.02 Academic Freedom; BP 1.17 Public Access and Free Expression on College Property; AP 1.17.01 Public Access and Expression on College Property
